

Code of Conduct for Players AND Parents/Guardians

Last updated: 1st May, 2020

When I register as a player, not only am I signing to agree my membership of the King's Elite Goaltending Academy, but I am also signing to say that I understand, and will try to the best of my ability, to adhere to this Code of Conduct.

- I will participate because I want to and for the fun of it, not just because my Parents or Coach want me to.
- I will co-operate with and respect my Coach and classmates
- I will play to the rules of the game.
- I will accept success and failure, victory and defeat, equally.
- I will resist any temptation to take banned substances or use banned techniques.
- I will not use inappropriate language.
- I will set a positive example to others.
- I will remember that my Coaches and other officials are there to help me. I understand that while they can and will make mistakes from time to time, I must still respect their decisions.
- I will remember that while it is great to win, it should be fun to play at all times.
- I will respect the facilities and the property provided and it must not be shared with other members or non-members of King's Elite Goaltending Academy.
- I will behave appropriately in 1:1 sessions, webinars and on the King's Elite Goaltending Academy Facebook pages at all times.
- You may record 1:1 and webinar sessions for personal use, however these are not to be posted on any public forum or social media platforms. Screenshots are acceptable.
- The King's Elite Goaltending Academy logbook is subject to copyright law and therefore should not be reproduced or shared with non-academy members. Failing to comply to this could result in the immediate termination of your membership with no refund and the removal of the membership privileges.

Ice Hockey is a fast and often aggressive sport but there is a big difference between playing and training competitively, and the intimidation and abuse of others. King's Elite Goaltending Academy has a policy of ZERO TOLERANCE towards verbal and physical abuse. Any individual found to be involved in the verbal or physical abuse of another member may, at the discretion of the King's Elite Goaltending Academy, be suspended from the programme.
